President and Party Sail From Dover for Calais After Final Farewell From Royalty and British Leaders.

DOVER, England, Dec. 18.—President Wilson and his party stalled from Dover for Calais at 11.20 o'clock this morning. The presidential train reached Dover at 11 o'clock and little time was lost in boarding the steamer Brighton, which set out almost immediately on the cross-channel trip.

The morning was cold and raw, with a sharp east wind whipping the channel into whitecaps, indicating that the crossing was likely to be a rough one. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions, however, both President Wilson and Mrs. Wilson remained on the bridge until the steamer left her pier. They smilled and waved farewells to those on shore, while the band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

On their arrival on the platform of the station when the train reached here from London a guard of honor consisting of a company of royal fusillers and bluelackets from the Dover patrol was lined up to greet the party. The president was received by Commander Boyle, secretary to Vice-Admiral Sir Rogger Keyes. Admiral Keyes being indisposed and unable to attend in person.

henor and the band of the Irish Guards played.

Among those who were at the station were Gen, Sir William R. Robertson, Vice-Admiral Sims, John W. Davis, the American ambassador, and Lady Reading. Mrs. Wilson chatted with Queen Mary and shook hands with all present as the train pulled out, the king and queen waving their handkerchiefs and the band playing as it left the station. It was a dark and rainy morning, but crowds lined the streets from Buckingham palace to the station and cheered as the procession passed. President Wilson and King George were in the first carriage; Mrs. Wilson, Queen Mary and Frincess Mary in the second, and members of the president's party and court officials were in the three other carriages. Mrs. Wilson's umbrella was raised on account of the rain, but she nodded and smiled to the crowds at the station.

Inspect Guard.

Mr. Wilson and King George inspected the guard while the band played "The Star-Spangled Banner." President and Mrs. Wilson bade farewell to King George, Queen Mary and Princess Mary in the waiting room, and then took their leave of Premier Lloyd George, Andrew Bonar Law. Lord Robert Cecil and Sir Eric Geddes, who were at the station.

Maj.-Gen. John Biddle, Col. William W. Harts and Miss Edith Benham, secretary to Mrs. Wilson.
Others who traveled on the presidential train to Dover were Col. S. L. H. Slocum, J. Butler Wright and Herbert C. Hoover.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. Dec. 20—
Memphis is represented in Nashville today by Mayor Frank L. Monteverde, Alfred Mason, commissioner of finance, and C. W. Miller, vicemayor and commissioner of fire and police. They are here, it is said, to take steps to thwart certain threatened legislation affecting the welfare of the Bluff City, particularly that which proposes to convert the government of that town from a commission to a "business manager" form of government.

The visitors called at the state capitol this morning to renew acquaintances and later called upon Judge A. H. Roberts, who is soon to become governor of Tennessee.

While at the capitol, it was learned from some of them that the unit rule adopted some time ago by the Shelby county delegation to the general assembly had been abrogated or would be abrogated, and that, at any rate, it would not govern either in the organization of the

there is no doubt that the inquiry would have been answered with deception.

Commissioner Quinn would not go quite so far in his explanation of the mayor's absence as some of the others. He contented himself with saying, "I heard the afayor say he was going bird heating, and he asked me to stick around."

BANK CLEARINGS SET NEW RECORD

Proposed changes in the personnel of the police department, scheduled for Jan, I, will not be made before Jan 8, at the earliest, according to an 8 announcement by Police Commissioner C. W. Miller Tuesday. Absence of Commissioner Leo Goodman from the city will delay the swing of the official ax. In order to rearrange the force it will be necessary for the city commission to ratify the police commissioner's recommendations.

Dan J. Reeder, clerk to Chief Burney, is busy making out the payroll for Jan. 4. Most of the officers whose jobs are declared superfluous to the police force are in the auto department, as speed and traffic cops. None of them is being discharged for inability. Commissioner Miller also has proposed to change the method of policing the suburban spots by dividing the city into divisions or districts, instead of wards.

It has been officially announced that the changes will not affect the "high-er-ups" on the police force.

Figures Compiled From Treasury Reports Show Immense Sums Were Needed for War and Loans to Allies.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31. It cost the Américan people about $18,162,000,000 to run its war government and make leans to the auties in the year ending today, according to compilations from treas-ury reports.

each day is mounting because of the liquidation of war contracts and treasury officials said indications are the demands on the government in that first ments of the new year may be even more than for this month.

With estimates of expenses in the last few days, not yet actually compiled, officials believe becomes expenses will run to $2,100,000,000, or mearly $200,000,000 more than last ments high record. This includes nearly $456,000,000 estimated for allied loans, and $1,570,000,000 estimated for the government's actual expenditures.

That the public has paid only about one-third of war expenses, including foreign loans, in taxes, in cash and two-thirds as loans to be repaid in another generation. Is indicated by treasury figures of collections from various sources. With the last four days of the year got yet tabulated receipts from laxes, outsoms and miscellaneous revenue amounted to $4,687,022,000, and $2,949,032,000 came from moome said excess profits taxes alone, $1,124,518,000 from other federal taxes, only $171,000,000 from customs duties on imports and the balance, or about $6,038,000,006, has come into the treasury from the Fourth Liberty loan. In addition $1,802,000,000, has come into the treasury from the Fourth Liberty loan. In addition $13,000,000, has come into the treasury troin the Fourth Liberty loan. In addition $13,000,000 worth of certificates of indebtedness have been sold and subsequently largel gredeemed from Liberty loan. The addition $13,000,000 worth of these small securities sold in December, $137, represents the entire harvest from war savings and thrift stamps in the year they have been on the market.

War savings receipts this month amount to about $6,000,000. The way in which war expenses have mounted from month to menth is shown by the following table of expenditures.

January, $138, $1,000,000.
